had rolled down into a marsh. Engineer Johnson and Fireman Carper were shot through their cab windows, the latter being almost completely submerged in a small creek, where he was disco ered some time after the accident. His ck was broken.

Messenger Has Narrow Escape.

The engineer crawled back to his engine. Express Messenger Stratton, of Washington, had a miraculous escape. As he attempted to reach for the bell cord he was struck by a package and pinned to the side of the car, which had been thrown thirty feet in the marsh. Recovusness, he extricated him-

A half dozen physicians attended the injured, who were brought to Char-lottesville at II o'clock. Three were taken to local hospitals, while others were re-moved to their homes.

LEAPED TO HER DEATH.

Husband Will Bring Body of Mrs Cohill Here from Baltimore.

The body of Mrs. Nellie Cohill, wife of logical Survey, who died in Baltimore yes terday from injuries received in jumping from the third-story window of a boardng-house in that city, will be brought to Washington to-day.

Mrs. Cohill's death occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald, 525 Fulon avenue, Baltimore, where she had been staying ten or twelve days. Since last December Mrs. Cohiil had been an in-mate of the Spring Grove Asylum, in Baltimore County, where she had been under Hours and Trains Run via Lynch- going treatment for brain trouble. She had left the institution apparently cured, and had gone to the McDonald home to make a short stay before joining her husband in Washington.

Men's Fall Suits at $15

A Saks-made fifteendollar suit carries with it no apology. None is needed.

It comes out frankly for just what it is-it will bear the limelight.

We'll tell you what it is:

It is a quality that you would pay at least eighteen dollars for built elsewhere than in the Saks workshops. (That's what our being makers means to you.

It is faultlessly fashioned

It is built honestly thruout.

it comes in a diversity of It courts comparison with any other fifteen-dollar suit you can find-for it is the best suit that

It is up-to-date, it is distinctive,
